WWSC 2012 AWARD

CONSERVATIONIST OF THE YEAR: This member has been noticed by many for his tireless efforts the last couple of years. He has stepped forward to be the main contact and auditor for WWSC in the lead recovery project last summer. He has also helped cut and clear brush in many areas around WWCS property including the pond edges to make the waters edge accessible for tons of lead recovery. This award goes to Jack Boshoven.

OUTSTANDING HONORARY MEMBER OF THE YEAR: This member steps forward each year to organize and instruct our community teenagers on Hunter Safety through a series of classes in July and August. With the help of his spouse, this profitable effort endears WWSC to the community, and promotes future sportsmen and women to respect safety and enjoy the natural resources of our country. This award goes to Ron Kobel.

OUTSTANDING CHARTER MEMBER OF THE YEAR: This member continues to provide the club with outstanding leadership and organizational skills for the challenging position of Range Monitor Chairman. This includes making sure the target boards are in stock and replaced as necessary. Also many times in the past year he has also made numerous extra trips to the club to open the clubhouse for renters and setup tables and chairs for the events by himself. The WWSC building rental program and profits owe our thanks and gratitude to Don Mize the 2012 Charter Member of the Year.

DALE E SAYLES SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR: This member has promoted and worked tirelessly throughout the year teaching 4H and our younger members (boys and girls) and how to safely enjoy our shooting sports, including trap, archery, pistol/rifle ranges, and fishing. We have observed time and time again the smiles on the kids' faces as they learn how to respect each other and the equipment they use. This award goes to Denny Fuller.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD:

The member chosen for this award has provided WWSC outstanding leadership for 1 -1/2 years as club President. He has worked tirelessly at home and at the club to re-instate WWSC in good standings with the MUCC. He took over as "acting bookkeeper" till the BOD found a replacement bookkeeper, while still serving as President. He has worked endlessly to put in place a standard bar for BOD members. He established procedures for the BOD and the club members that will keep our club above reproach from MUCC and State of Michigan. This Award goes to Rademas (Rady) Degado.

The annual WWSC SPORTSMANS BANQUET, normally held in March, will not be held this year. Thank you Mark Thue and the banquet committee (Ed Stone, Rich Vander Meer, Barry Fox and Pat Murray) for your past work on this event. For those of you who have attended in the past, THANK YOU and we look forwards to seeing you at the Expanded WILD GAME DINNER NIGHT with raffles and prizes. This will be scheduled in September of this Year.

The intended date for the canceled banquet was March 23, instead plans are being made to have a WWSC Gun & Knife Show on that date. Watch for further information and details to come.

The January Gun Raffle winner was: Mike Freeman #62
