WWSC president Leon Steele and charter member David Tagg helped guide a hunt for "American Heroes" at River Hills Lodge in Platte, South Dakota. These heroes were from World War II, Vietnam Vets, and Desert Storm. The two from World War II are two of the "Tuskegee Airmen"; both of them are in their 90's. The vets are from the Grand Rapids vets home. Leon and Dave both said it was a lot of work to hunt with disabled hunters, but they wouldn't trade the tasks for anything. Just to help these heroes.
