Chronic Wasting Disease

Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) is a contagious and deadly neurological disease affecting deer, elk and moose, transmitted through saliva and other bodily fluids of infected animals. It causes a spongy degeneration of the brain, resulting in emaciation, abnormal behavior, loss of bodily functions and, ultimately, the animal's death. There is no cure for the disease, and some deer can be sick for years without showing symptoms.

What can YOU do?

- Keep hunting
- Get your deer checked and tested. Find locations at mi.gov/deercheck (One of the locations is here at WWSC)
- Avoid long-distance movements with your deer carcass
- Handle and dispose of your carcass in a responsible manner
- If you hunt out-of-state, only bring back allowed parts
- Stay up-to-date on latest hunting regulations

In order to help state wildlife managers, gain important information about CWD, the DNR is strongly urging all Michigan hunters to take their harvested deer to a check station within 24 hours of killing a deer.

We have a 24/hour drop box and a deer check station the following hours

October 1 to January 15 - Thursday through Monday - 9:00am to 5:30pm

KITCHEN HELP NEEDED

Volunteers need for Saturday lunch service. 2 hours shifts, 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Set up, cook and serve food, then clean up. Training and procedure manual will be provided.

Monster Mash a real Smash

We had 14 attending this month, six were first time Fun Shoot participants. The ghosts, Mummies, Bride of Frankenstein, bats, and monster ducks all took some hits, but there are no target failures I need to report. The middle mummy had it's stomach all shot out, but the two end ones still had full mummies to shoot at. We did have some issues with the balloon stomping game, some we had to jump on with two feet to break them, but we had fun. The dinner was enjoyed by all.

Our winners were: 1st Jay Braxmaier, 2nd Michael Kohl, 3rd Zachary Krieger.

My thanks to Michael and Fran for their services as RSO's. Kathy with score keeping and Don, Jay, and Michael for the kitchen help. As always, these fun shoots are a team effort.

Fun shoots will return in January 2019. Watch the newsletter for announcements and signs posted. Have a great holiday season everybody.
